

Transform your outdoor space into a swanky, mid-century modern den of luxury with the Harlow 5-piece conversation set by Mod. The lounge-worthy collection includes 2 deep seating chairs, sofa, faux wood coffee table and side table. Borrowing from Scandinavian design, these stylish pieces possess a soft gray color scheme, faux wood grain, clean lines and simple accents. The aesthetic may be modeled after Mid-Century decor, but with all the modern advantages. The entire collection is crafted using sturdy steel frames with a powder coated finish to protect against rust, scratches, and UV harm. The loveseat and deep seating side chairs have hand-woven wicker accents and plush cushions that are both comfortable and quick-drying. The matching tables feature faux wood grain tabletops and are the perfect landing spot for your favorite chilled beverage. Made with weather resistant materials, you'll enjoy timeless style while having the time of your life for years to come.
