

The Hanover Grill Gazebo

If grilling and chilling is your preferred pastime, there are no rain delays. Don't let a little weather stop you from stepping up your barbecue game with the Grill Gazebo by Hanover. This stylish gazebo protects you from rain and hot, glaring sun alike, enabling you to comfortably use your outdoor grill, regardless of weather. The roof is ridged and sloped for optimal water runoff, while the rest of the sturdy aluminum and steel frame is power coated to resist rust and corrosion. Cook for your friends and family with ease, thanks to the workspace provided by the convenient built-in shelves and hooks for hanging utensils. Created with all-weather materials, your grill gazebo will be the focal point of your outdoor entertaining season after season.
